Dear Lucy,

I thank you cordially for the very pretty, tasteful fan you sent me, and for the friendly feeling which induced you to think of send-ing it.

I am extremely glad your Fair proved so eminently successful, and I hope the proceeds will be the means of saving many souls.

I believe in saving souls; though far enough from believing it in the Orthodox sense of the term.

With affectionate wishes for your welfare, both spiritually and ma-terially,

Yours truly

L. Maria Child.
